JeffCo Repair and Port Townsend Marine Science Center

Liability Waiver

Thank you for participating in this JeffCo Repair Program, sponsored by the Port Townsend Marine Science Center (PTMSC), the WA Department of Ecology, and Local 2020's Beyond Waste Action Group.

Clients bringing broken items for repair do so at their own risk. Not every repair can be successful, and we cannot guarantee the effectiveness of the repairs undertaken at this event, or any repair advice shared. PTMSC does not accept any liability for the damage or injury to person or property resulting from the use of items repaired at this event, or damage or injury connected to the event.

In consideration of being allowed to participate in this event at no cost to me, I hereby waive and release PTMSC and JeffCo Repair volunteers, and any others acting on behalf of the participating businesses or organizations, from any and all responsibilities or liability from damages or injuries of any kind to my property, anyone else's property, or to me or any other person, in my party or otherwise, as a result of my participation in this Repair Event.
